Choosing Just the Right Business

You can pursue a variety of businesses to earn money online. Almost all types of income-generating opportunities fall into one of two categories:

- » Business to consumer (B2C): Customers are typically the individual consumers who make up the general public. They buy products or services designed for personal use.
 - » Business to business (B2B): Customers are most likely other businesses. They might buy hospital equipment, steel by the ton, employee uniforms, or anything that would be used primarily by a company

Turning Ideas into a Viable Internet Business

Using the Internet to conduct business is similar in many ways to operating a traditional company. In fact, many traditional offline businesses now conduct part of their business online.

Today, consumers research products and services online and expect to be able to buy products or services online, even from bricks-and-mortar stores.

Using informal research to verify your idea

Three Rings of Decision

Ring 1 consists of your friends, family, and coworkers. Ask them these questions:

- » Have you ever heard of this type of product or service?
- » Would you buy this product or service?
- » Do you think it's a good idea?
- » What challenges do you think I will encounter?
- » What are the benefits?
- » Can you envision me selling this product or service? Why or why not?

» Can you envision me selling this product or service? Why or why not?

» What are the benefits?

In Ring 2, seek input from industry professionals, investors, other entrepreneurs, and organizations that offer support to small businesses. Ask questions similar to those listed for Ring 1. Because of the experience of the people in Ring 2, you should give more weight to their responses. Small-business support resources include the following:

- » Small Business Administration (SBA) (www.sba.gov): The SBA, a government-sponsored organization, helps small-business owners with loans, paperwork navigation, free seminars, and other services.
 - » Small Business Development Center (SBDC) (www.sba.gov/sbdc): The SBDC is a partnership between the SBA and universities. Together, they provide support, mentoring, training, and educational services to both new and established small businesses. SBDCs are available through local branches, often located in a partnering university or Chamber of Commerce.
 - » Chamber of Commerce (www.uschamber.com): From small towns to large cities, all local chambers help owners develop their small businesses.
 - » SCORE (www.score.org): This network of retired executives matches small-business owners with business-exec retirees who volunteer their time to help small businesses develop and prosper.

In Ring 3 are your potential customers. Ask them these questions:

- » Would you use this product or service?
- » Have you used something similar?
- » How much would you be willing to pay?
- » How often would you use it?
- » Where would you normally go to buy this product or service?
- » Would you order it over the Internet?

» Μπορώ λοιπόν ο ίδιος ή ο ίδιες την υπηρεσία;

» Μπορώ λοιπόν να πωσώ; Εξαρτάται από τις πληροφορίες οι οποίες
